row, with Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.) as principal speaker at the annual dinner tomorrow night. Municipal Judge Graham Sudbury of Blytheville will be master of ceremonies at the dinner. Top state officers, and Arkansas congressional delegation, and members of the state Legislature have been invited to the affair. Speakers on opening day will include David B. Ray Jr., superintendent of the Arkansas children's home at Conway; Carl Adams, director of the state Welfare Department; and Dr. P. Douglas Lawason, provost of the University of Arkansas Medical Center. Adams and Lawason will discuss their agencies' part under the 1959 patient care law, which limits the number of indigent patients a county or city may send to the center. Ray will discuss the Colony's operation.

Boycott Brings Firing of Negro Carhops

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Negro male carhops have been taken off their jobs at a drive-in restaurant after a throng of white men boycotted the place and warned the owner to get rid of them.

Tommy Priakas, the owner, said the two young men, students at Arkansas A&M College for Negroes, had not been fired.

Priakas said he was "letting things kind of cool off." Priakas said last night. He said the suspension period is indefinite.

None of the boycotters showed up last night, and only a few were present after the Negroes were removed Saturday, Priakas said.

The white men, numbering from 60 to 70, first showed up last Tuesday night. They crowded the inside of the white establishment and jammed the driveways with their cars, lingering for hours over coffee and cheap soft drinks.

Business was good last night. Priakas said the men would not tell him if they represented any segregationist group, but a police spokesman said some had been identified as members of the Dollarway Citizens Council, an anti-integration organization.

Segregationist feeling has mounted here recently over an effort by three Negro students to enter the nearby all-white Dollarway School.

The school board is studying petition. Priakas, who has used Negro carhops for the past four years without previous trouble, said he

Senators Not to Move From Washington

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Senators won't move to Minneapolis this year.

Club owner Calvin Griffith announced Monday night his decision to remain in the capital, where the Senators have been since 1951.

His reason: He found out that some American League club owners refused to go along with the move. It would only take three no votes to blockball the transfer.

Griffith did a lightrope act last year too about moving to Minneapolis. The Minnesota city has been trying to attract the Senators for several years, and has offered sizable guarantees.

Griffith said he agreed with his advisers that the latest Minneapolis offer "is for the best interests of all stockholders" of the club. Thus he seemed to be leaving the door open for another try next year to shift the franchise.

Minneapolis, Griffith said, offered a minimum net profit of $439,000 a year for five years, a total of $2,195,000. The last-place Senators drew 615,000 fans here this year, Griffith said the club lost money.

Griffith had Lawyer C. Leo DeOrsey review the Minneapolis offer. DeOrsey's recommendation was to either sell the club or had not talked with the boycotters after their initial warning last week to replace the Negroes with white girls.

Faubus Reduces Terms of Six

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus has reduced the terms of six convicts, including two slayers.

He said he acted on recommendation of the state Parole Board.

The life sentence of Eddie Washington, convicted Oct. 23, 1936, in Ashley County for first degree murder, was cut to 26 years.

Squire Claybourne Potter, convicted March 19, 1955 in Yell County for second degree murder, received a commutation from 21 to 15 years.

Other recipients of clemency included Lucie Wheeler, convicted Aug. 13, 1957 in Sevier County of burglary and grand larceny. His term was reduced from 16 to 6 years.

The commutations will make the recipients eligible for parole sooner.

Langelee, Family to Leave Russia

AMSTERDAM (AP)—Russell A. Langelee, U.S. Embassy official expelled from Moscow for alleged espionage, will leave with his family by plane for New York Wednesday, a spokesman for the Dutch Air line KLM said.

If he intended to remain in baseball, accept the Minneapolis bid with certain amendments.

Griffith said in a statement: "My stock is not for sale. I have every intention to remain in baseball." He is the majority stockholder. DeOrsey himself reportedly wanted to buy the stock if Griffith sold out.

Von Braun Not to Quit Post in Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Wernher von Braun said today he had no present intention of resigning from the nation's missile and space program if his group of Army-sponsored scientists is shifted to another government agency.

But Von Braun, chief scientist at the Army's Ballistic Missile Agency at Huntsville, Ala., told a news conference he might resign if "a pleasant environment" and challenging space work are not given to him and his scientists after any such transfer.

President Eisenhower is considering whether Von Braun's group should remain under the Army or be transferred to the Air Force or the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the civilian space agency.

Von Braun said he was sure the President's decision would be "in the best interest of the nation."

But he said "even a wise decision made in the best interests of the nation could ultimately backfire" if the agency selected did not provide proper conditions for his scientists.

"Situations arise that can create crises," he said. "Suppose for example, someone should decide to cancel the Saturn program."

The Saturn program is one aimed at producing a rocket with 1 1/2 million pounds of thrust capable of putting huge payloads into space.

Advices Public to Take Flu Shots

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—get some flu shots, the state Department advises.

Dr. A.M. Washburn, director of the Division of Communicable Disease Control, said yesterday no general outbreak of flu in Arkansas is expected as a result of the season.

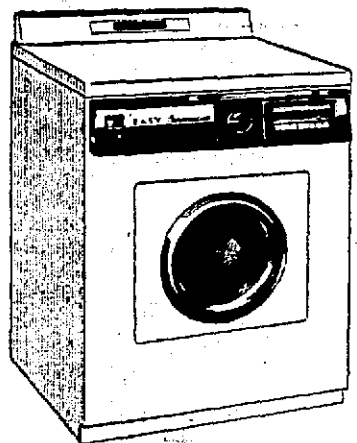

But he suggested residents take anti-flu vaccine as a precaution since there probably will be outbreaks.

Washburn said the U.S. General's office had informed the bulk of flu cases this year were expected to be of the A type.

Wide-Track wheels!

A car is a living thing.

And all living things must change.

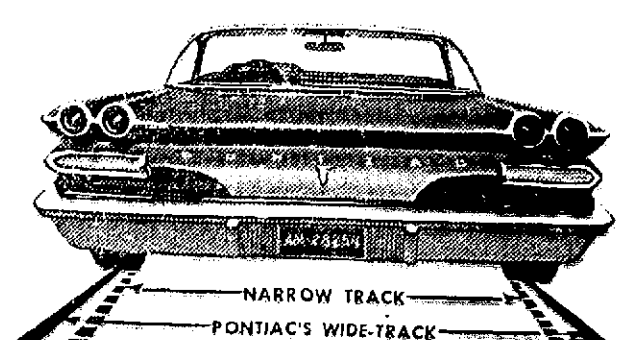

This is why the creative car builders of Pontiac took the proved principle of Wide-Track Wheel Design and surrounded it with fresh, exhilarating, totally new beauty for 1960.

The prow is styled for excitement.

The horizontal bars bear the artistry of the classical.

The perfect profile comes from just-right proportion, unity, rhythm.

The clean, graceful back contributes character where other cars seem only to reflect confusion.

With the widest track of any car, Pontiac's width is on the road—where it gives you better stability. Wide Track widens the stance, not the car.

DOROTHY DIX

From Doormat to Door Post

Dear Dorothy Dix: It seems I was born to be mistreated. I was the oldest of the family and practically brought up my four small sisters, caring for them even after I was married. My first husband, to whom I was married for 20 years, abused me in every way he could. I worked like a slave helping to make a living and never had a single comfort like bathroom, washing machine or electricity. Finally, when my two sons were grown, I divorced him. I was still young in age, but broken in spirit. My boys refused to help me, though they came to me for help until my small bank account was used up. Last year I was working at a summer resort where I met the only person who had ever given me consideration. He didn't have much of the world's goods but he was rich in kindness and charity. We were married and I have been very happy with him. However, all my family absolutely refuses to have anything to do with us. Well, almost all; my younger son wants me to take care of his wife when she has their first child around Christmas. When they need me, they know where to look, all right.—Mona D.

Dear Mona: Be a doormat and you're sure to be stepped on. You carried meekness and humility too far. To use an unpleasant word, you made a slob of yourself for everyone. People will take advantage of a doormat, but they will never respect or admire it. By overdoing servility, you became not a person, but an object to do anybody's dirty work. I'm glad you finally woke up—a little. You are happily married so make your new husband the center of your life. Let your son hire a nurse for his wife. Tell him, bluntly, if necessary, that you've moved out of the league of the badgered. Slick by the new policy and you'll win the respect you lost years ago. Don't blame others too much for what you've been through. You sent out an engraved invitation asking them to take advantage. They did, as most human beings will. Now they must be re-educated. See that you to a good job. Be a pillar, not a mat.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her care of this newspaper.

Texas Crippled for Crucial Game With Rice

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Coach Darrell Royal of the University of Texas faced a batch of worries about injuries and the calendar today.

Rene Ramirez, and Don Allen both nurse injuries and Allen apparently will miss Saturday's game at Austin with Rice, Clair Branch was named the No. 1 fullback to replace Allen and he promptly stepped on a water sprinkler and twisted his ankle. He'll miss at least a couple of days' practice.

David Kristofnik, the No. 2 right guard, also is out with a hip injury.

Besides that, it's late October; the frost is on the pumpkin and it's time for Jess Neely's Owls to get mighty tough.

Last year Texas also was undefeated and ranked high in the nation's top ten. And Rice knocked the Longhorns off 347.

The year before, Texas A&M was riding high on an unbeaten string when the Owls upset the Aggies.

But Neely had his own injury worries. Both first string ends, Johnny Burrell and Charley Polard, were on the injured list and Burrell apparently will miss the Texas clash.

Billy Simmons and John Windrow filled in at ends at yesterday's practice.

Baylor and Texas A&M prepared for their game with short workouts.

Southern Methodist's star quarterback and passer, Don Meredith, sported a cast on his right thumb. Sprained against Rice last week but the cast is expected to come off his passing hand Friday and he should be ready for Texas Tech.

Texas Tech worried about Meredith, cast or no cast.

Running and stressed as the raiders worked without pads.

Arkansas, facing fourth ranked Mississippi Saturday, stepped through a few wind sprints and worked out lightly in sweat clothes.

Coach Frank Broyles said the squad was nearly free of injuries.

Coach Abe Martin of Texas Christian ran his horned frogs through a snappy workout. The Frogs face Pittsburgh Saturday.

Porkers Meet Nation's 4th Team Next

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks, who have advanced two notches in national ratings despite a one-point loss to Texas, hit the heavy work today in preparation for Mississippi.

The squad came out of the 14-13 loss to Texas free of injuries, except for a few bruises and a slight limp by halfback Jarrell Williams.

The Porkers had a light workout yesterday, running wind sprints. They got a long scouting report on Mississippi from Asst. Coach Wilson Matthews.

Matthews said Ole Miss has a better passing game than Texas, and warned of the Rebels' dangerous fullbacks.

Arkansas is No. 10 in the Associated Press football poll, up from last week's No. 12 spot on the basis of a tenuous battle with the Steers. Ole Miss is ranked fourth, Texas third.

Coach Frank Broyles voiced respect for Mississippi's multiple-defense. Their running and passing attacks are probably better balanced than that of any team in the nation, he said.

After their workout yesterday, the Hogs watched a film of the Texas game.

Circus Augments Its Traveling Zoo

With the recent addition of a 4-ton hippopotamus, a gargantuan tapir, a jungle-bred rhinoceros, and a herd of giraffes, Kelly-Miller is the only circus now exhibiting that strange jungle creature "The Tapir", and only Kelly-Miller Circus can boast of being the only American Circus now exhibiting a herd of living giraffes and a jungle-bred rhinoceros.

Aside from these unusual animals, the vast menagerie of the Miller Bros. Circus has long lines of cages, dens, corals and enclosures containing lions, tigers, polar bears, leopards, pumas, jaguars, chimpanzees, ostriches, laughing hyenas, kangaroos the rarest of the "cat family", the black leopard, and many beautiful tropical birds.

Also many zebras, camels, Hammas, gnu, yack, antelope, and dozens of smaller animals too numerous for mention.

A special invitation has been given to children of all ages (from 6 to 60) especially the school students to visit the circus grounds at nine o'clock the morning of Saturday, Oct. 24th, to see the unloading, feeding, and watering of the many wild and strange beasts. This free treat is an opportunity for many persons to see a vast zoo within the very short distance of their own vicinity.

Despite Losing Porks Advance in Grid Ratings

By ED CORRIGAN Associated Press Sports Writer

Powerful Louisiana State held its so far unshakable position atop the nation's college football teams today for the 14th consecutive week.

The Bengals from the Bayou compiled a whopping 1,238 votes from the sports writers and sportscasters voting in the weekly Associated Press poll. LSU has been in first place since early last season.

Coach Paul Dietzel's club drew 68 of the 144 first place votes—almost as many as the other schools combined.

The points are tallied on the basis of 10 for first place, 9 for second and so on down the line.

Louisiana State barely beat Kentucky, 9-0, last Saturday, but the voters still gave the Tigers a comfortable margin over second-place Northwestern, which collected 1,171 points.

The Wildcats turned back Michigan, 20-7, last Saturday. They managed 23 first place votes in holding down their second place spot.

Texas completed the big three—the same order as a week ago—by drawing 1,010 points. The Longhorns, who edged Arkansas, 13-12, in their last effort, were the only other team to crack the 1000 mark.

Rounding out the top 10 were Mississippi, Southern California, Syracuse, Auburn, Penn State, Georgia Tech and Arkansas in that order.

Both Auburn and Arkansas are newcomers to the charmed circle. The Plainsmen jumped to seventh from 11th by virtue of the 8-8 triumph over Georgia Tech while Arkansas, despite the defeat by Texas, advanced to tenth from 12th.

The top ten, points based on 10 etc. (first place votes in parenthesis):

1. Louisiana State (68)
2. Northwestern (23)
3. Texas (8)
4. Mississippi (18)
5. Southern California (12)
6. Syracuse (4)
7. Auburn (5)
8. Penn State (3)
9. Georgia Tech (2)
10. Arkansas (1)

The second ten:

11. Oregon (1)
12. Wisconsin (1)
13. Illinois (1)
14. Purdue (1)
15. Iowa (1)
16. Texas Christian (1)
17. Clemson (1)

Across The Counter

Let me ask you a question: "Do you have enough fire insurance on your home?"

A recent happening prompts this question. When a house changed hands, the new owner discovered the fire insurance was only the original amount of the mortgage. The house had been built in 1951 and a $6,000 loan secured. It was insured for this amount. Yet today the house was worth easily $12,000. This left about half the value uninsured.

It is easy to overlook coverage on the most important part of the house — the part you actually own. Usually, this occurs unintentionally. When a home is built the lending institution does not generally insist on more than enough insurance to cover their loan. Unfortunately if a severe fire or other damage occurs, your own savings — your equity — is the part that is not covered.

We think it is fine to protect the loan company. But how about part you own? Shouldn't you have it protected too?

Come in and let us discuss this problem with you. We'll show you how reasonably your full interest in your home can be protected!

Rabies Scare Seldom Justified
By JOE STETSON
Dog Editor, Field & Stream

Rabies and mad dog scares can be over-emphasized.

A rabid dog is a pretty rare thing today. By proper preventive measures we can keep the incidence low — even eliminate rabid dogs completely as has been done in England.

There are, however, precautions which should be observed whenever a dog bite of any kind occurs.

Puppies break skin with their sharp little teeth. Minor dog bites are quite common. There is only one chance in a million that the offending dog is in a condition to transmit rabies.

Abrasions or wounds should be cleansed and treated in accordance with the nature of the bite, but any fear that rabies might result is absolutely unfounded just so long as the offending dog is alive.

Only when a dog is in the advanced stages of rabies can infection be transmitted through the saliva of a dog. Therefore, any dog capable of transmitting rabies will die within a few hours after the time when it is able to transmit the disease.

Keating Wants Nixon, Rockefeller Ticket

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.) has proposed either a Nixon-Rockefeller or a Rockefeller-Nixon ticket for the Republican next year.

Keating told a news conference today he is less certain than he was two months ago that Vice President Richard M. Nixon and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller can avoid a "lock-down and drag-out" fight at the Chicago GOP convention, but he still doesn't expect such a fight.

"I am still of the opinion that there will not be a contest at the convention," the senator insisted.

He said a ticket including both of them would be a fine solution. Keating said Nixon obviously is far ahead for his party's presidential nomination at this time. He added his belief that if Rockefeller becomes convinced the vice presidential is the overwhelming choice of his party, the New York governor will bow out.

"On the other hand," he said, "if Gov. Rockefeller should catch on like wildfire, it is possible Mr. Nixon would withdraw."

AMERICA AFLOAT

Editor, Popular Boating (Distributed by NEA Service).

CHICAGO — (NEA) — Catamarans and cocktail rafts, amphibious houseboats and hydroplane runabouts are among new pleasure craft unveiled for boatmen in 1960.

At the boating trade show in Chicago, dealers from throughout the country were examining the new craft that will highlight America's waterways.

Newly popular is the pontoon raft — a cross between a swim float and a houseless houseboat. Suitable for good weather boating on lakes, rivers and bays, it can chug along under outboard power. There is room for deck chairs, sun umbrella and a barbecue.

The catamaran hull, similar in some ways to the old sea-sled design, will be appearing in runabout and outboard cruiser models.

Two parallel hulls, built side by side into one unit, are reported to give better stability than one hull in rough water. A St. Louis to New Orleans outboard marathon race proved they could make speed through rugged going.

Another innovation is the amphibious boat with built-in wheels. House trailers in the past have been constructed so that they were buoyant enough to roll into water.

Now a 17-foot runabout is being made with wheels that lower from traps in the hull bottom to make a trailer for hauling along a road, but retract hydraulically when the boat is launched on the water.

Runabouts with hydroplane bottom, similar to those of high-speed racing craft are being introduced. These runabouts are powered by outboard as well as outboard power.

The outboard that can be clamped on the stern of a houseboat is making this style more popular than ever. Many families have found these big boats with their room for many conveniences.

Amphibious houseboats that can be towed are still increasing in popularity.

Boats for 1961 will have cleaner, sleeker lines, more built-in accessories. There are encouraging trends toward shatterproof windows and integral flotation.

Electric, aluminum and plywood boats are in evidence.

BE SURE ABOUT Insurance

Do You Know — There Are Many Kinds of Fire Insurance?

To be wisely insured, not only should you have fire insurance... the coverage must also be suited to your needs. We have insurance to cover home, car, personal belongings, to cover a period of housing costs if you should be burned out, etc. Let's talk over your needs today.

Doesn't Matter If Dawkins Lost Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ralph Dawkins lost again today, not that it matters to him.

On July 18, Dawkins was put to death in New York's Sing Sing Prison.

Today—three months and three days later—the Supreme Court refused to consider his appeal from conviction of killing a South Ozone Park, N.Y., grocer during a 1957 holdup.

The Supreme Court last April 20 denied him a hearing.

He filed a second appeal, but no day of execution was asked. So, on the day set, the State of New York went ahead with the execution.

There was no official word to the high court. In its routine way, it got around to his appeal and closed the judicial record by writing "denied" on his petition.

The mistakes in domestic policies or economy can be corrected, Fulbright said, but if there is another conflict, "no doubt our own country will experience the horrors of war."

The senator said about two-thirds of this nation's foreign aid goes for military purposes, but the program helps countries maintaining their free enterprise instead of falling to the Communists.

The meeting at which he spoke was sponsored by Fordyce civic clubs.

Sanity Test to Rapist

ROCK (AP) — An attempt to examine a rapist for insanity, sentenced to 10 years in the Arkansas State Prison, was blocked by the state's attorney general, T. D. Williams.

Williams, who is in charge of the prison, refused to let a psychiatrist examine his inmate, Mitchell, 23, of El Dorado.

Williams said that the inmate had no plans to plead insanity, but would willingly accept a court-ordered examination.

Anti-Red Leader Dies of Poisoning

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—The Ukrainian anti-Communist leader, Stepan Badera, 39, found dead after a mysterious fall last Thursday, died of poisoning, Munich police announced today.

A spokesman said it appeared the noted guerrilla chief committed suicide but that the homicide squad has not completed its investigation.

Friends of Badera said he might have been assassinated. They insisted foul play was involved.

A Common Bible Translation Asked

NEW YORK (AP)—A common translation of the Bible for both Roman Catholics and Protestants is proposed by the Catholic weekly, America.

It "would indeed be a great achievement in the history of Christianity," writes the Rev. Walter M. Abbott, associate editor of the publication.

He notes that Protestants and Catholics have cooperated extensively in recent biblical research, and cited Protestant endorsements of the idea.

Appeals Dismissed Against Chavez Ravine

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court dismissed today three appeals attacking plans by the City of Los Angeles to demolish Chavez Ravine to the Los Angeles Dodgers for a baseball park.

Two of the appeals were filed in the name of Louis Kirschbaum and the third in the name of Julius Ruben.

Kirschbaum, a taxpayer, protested an ordinance approving a contract between the city and the National League baseball club.

The ordinance, approved in a referendum, authorized the city to convey to the Dodgers 165 acres in Chavez Ravine. It also provided Los Angeles would use its best efforts to acquire and convey to the club more land to make a total of 300 acres.

Kirschbaum contended the ordinance would hand over lands to a private corporation "engaged in a private venture for its own private profit," in disregard of a public-purpose deed restriction.

Marshall to Be Buried in D. C.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The body of Gen. George C. Marshall was taken today to Washington to lie in repose there under the American flag.

An airman and a sailor stood at his feet; a soldier, a marine and a coastguardsman at his head. Solemn-faced men, women and children, many of them tourists, walked by the casket. The body will be there until noon Tuesday, then will be taken to Arlington National Cemetery for simple last honors.

Court Refuses to Review O'Dwyer Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today refused to review a decision that William O'Dwyer, onetime mayor of New York City, and his former wife owe $2,242 in back federal income taxes.

The decision, by the U.S. Circuit Court in Richmond, Va., upheld a ruling by the U.S. Tax Court. The government's tax claims were for deficiencies in the years 1949 through 1951. In part of that time, O'Dwyer was ambassador to Mexico. His wife was Sloan Simpson.

in Texarkana.

Mr. and Mrs. Skippy White of Monroe, La. were the weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie White and John Cranford of Emmet.

Dentist Practice Denied Church Group

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court today affirmed a lower court order prohibiting the practice of dentistry by a religious organization.

The State Board of Dental Examiners filed the complaint against W. G. Lewis and other members of a group known as Missionary Supporters, Inc., which had headquarters in Fulton County.

Lewis, the complainant, was teaching dentistry to members of the organization who planned to become foreign missionaries. Dental service was offered to residents of the area.

Chancellor P. S. Cunningham issued the injunction although he found the missionary dentists helped "alleviate a desperate need for dental service" in Fulton and neighboring counties.

The law, he pointed out, prohibits anyone from practicing dentistry unless he is licensed by the state board.

The Supreme Court adopted Cunningham's decree in its entirety.

Youth Playing Cops, Robber Is Killed

JOHNSTON, R.I. (AP)—Milton J. Javary, 34, was shot and killed accidentally while playing cops and robbers with his young son in their home Sunday.

Deputy Police Chief Howard Hayward said that while the two were playing, Javary's 11-year-old son went into a bedroom, came out with a .22-caliber rifle and said playfully to his father: "I've got you now."

The father, apparently knowing the gun was loaded, shouted: "No, don't! No, don't!"

The gun went off and Javary suffered a wound in the chest. He died an hour and a half later in a hospital.

Would Reduce Level of Dam in Okolahoma

OZARK, Ark. (AP)—A reduction in the power pool level of an Oklahoma dam is being sought to prevent flooding in Arkansas at points on the Arkansas River.

The Arkansas Valley Electric Cooperative Corp. called for a 10-foot reduction in the power pool of Pensacola Dam. Its board of directors, in a resolution yesterday, said the reservoir on Grand River now is kept at a level above that originally called for.

As a result, the resolution said, the dam can hold back less water in times of heavy rains and high water. The Grand contributes one-fourth of the water at past Fort Smith in the River, the resolution, said the Arkansas congressional delegation.

No immediate action and one official said reduction from the 1950 at this time would cause recent floods along the River which caused an estimated $10 million in damage to the congressional delegation of the safety and welfare of people living in the Arkansas Valley in Arkansas. A reduction in the power pool would be a long-term toward preventing future resolution said.

Rhode Island and Plantations is the official name of the state island.

We would like to thank all our friends and each Church for the beautiful flowers and words of sympathy during the loss of our loved one.
